

农家娘子种田记我那一亩三分地的故事

我那一亩三分地的故事记得小时候，母亲总是说：“种田不是女孩子的事

。” 但我不信，她们也能做得很好。我长大了，就证明给她看。母亲看

到我的决心，点点头，说：“好吧，那就让你看看。” 我开始

了自己的种田记。早晨五点，我就要起床准备，一会儿去市场买些蔬菜

和作物的种子。晚上回来后，还要整理一下小屋里的东西，不留下任何

杂乱。 第一天

，我开始种植西瓜。Mother teaches me how to make a pattern for the seeds and water them just right. I dug up my own little patc h of land, planted the seeds according to her instructions, and th en covered them with soil. Then I watered it thoroughly.

After that, I took care of the plants every day. When they were bi g enough, Mother helped me harvest them. We ate some immedi ately and saved some for later.My story about farming as a farmer's dau ghter was not easy at all. There were many challenges along the way - like when it rained too much or too little - but I never gave up.And now, after months of hard work, my garden is fu ll of fruits and vegetables! My mother is so proud of me now. She says,"You really can do anything you set your mind to."
